

BREAKING NEWS

30th of March 2020

Valued customer,

Due to the current situation which means an unprecedented challenge to all of us we have made it our core priority to keep the business going and to secure a continuous supply of our products.

All necessary protective measures to actively participate in the containment of the Corona Virus as well as the protection of our employees are our main focus.

We will certainly continue to inform you about product innovations and interesting news from our company.

Your personal contacts are available to you, as usual.

We thank you for your trust and confidence.

Stay safe and healthy.
